The CPD Standards Office and A.R Coaching Academy

A.R Coaching Academy has achieved formal CPD accreditation with the CPD Standards Office (CPDSO) part of the Professional Development Consortium.

The CPD Standards Office is a research and accreditation service. With a wealth of knowledge and extensive experience in learning and development, internationally and across sectors. To achieve this accreditation [Company Name] have had to undergo a detailed and in-depth assessment process.

The CPDSO assessment process was developed with an Independent Expert Advisory Board. Comprising professionals from educational institutions and professional bodies, as well as leaders in learning and development, the board ensures that all aspects of training are reviewed in detail and to confirm that training providers adhere to best practices across all of their programmes and customer service.

A.R Coaching Academy has been active members of the CPDSO since 2020. Having submitted their Event learning portfolio to the Standards Office to be reviewed by expert assessors, along with details of their internal processes, policies and business practices.

As part of the CPDSO process the assessors have thoroughly inspected A.R Coaching Academy's learning materials and completed an in depth background search on the individuals providing the training this includes authors and training instructors who created and/or contributed to A.R Coaching Academy learning curriculum.

CPD standards also ensure that all policies are up to date, fully understood, to be implemented appropriately. Ensuring relevant and current legislation is met by A.R Coaching Academy. These policies include, but are not limited to, health and safety, data protection, disability and equality.

During the assessment the course content and overall learning experience is graded and allocated the appropriate amount of CPD hours and points in line with the CPD requirements employed by over 2000 professional bodies.

By achieving the CPD Standards accreditation, A.R Coaching Academy have demonstrated that the training they deliver is wholly suitable for CPD purposes. It is engaging, relevant and delivering skills that can be productively applied in the workplace. The assessment process has also confirmed that A.R

Coaching Academy work actively to collect and consider delegate feedback as well as ensuring their training remains up to date.

A.R Coaching Academy can now issue formal CPD Standards points to all delegates who complete their learning activities. These points can be used as part of a formal CPD record and are internationally recognised (recognised in the USA as CL).
